Inventing the Americas | William Heath

“The world in his head was not the one under his feet,” Heath says of Columbus, capturing this tragic tale of conquest with a poet’s eye, using perfect details in thirteen concise poems to tell how pleasing myths hid historical truths.

The History of The History Teacher

Collaboration, Cooperation, Innovation, and Excellence

In 1940, the Teachers' History Club at the University of Notre Dame created the "Quarterly Bulletin of the Teachers' History Club" to improve the learning experience in the history classroom.

By 1967, the expanding collaboration of educators reorganized as the History Teachers' Association and decided to transform the bulletin into an academic journal—The History Teacher.

In 1972, the association transferred guardianship of The History Teacher to coordinating faculty members at the Department of History at California State University, Long Beach. In the interest of independence and self-determination, the associated teachers incorporated as a non-profit organization.

The Society for History Education, Inc. (SHE) was recognized by the State of California in 1972.

In 1998, The History Teacher began publishing the winning student essays from the annual National History Day contest, in recognition of the impact that history teachers have in shaping the next generation of young historians.

In 2012, the Society became a leader among publishers, offering full-text, open access to recent archives of The History Teacher at its website, thehistoryteacher.org.

In 2014, The History Teacher launched full-color covers on both front and back covers, showcasing high-quality historical images specifically designed to spark classroom discussion.

In 2025, the American Historical Association honored The History Teacher with the William and Edwyna Gilbert Award for the Best Article on Teaching History for the fourth year in a row, marking an unprecedented nine wins for the journal.

The History Teacher publishes articles of three general types: (1) reports on promising new classroom techniques, educational programs, curricula, and methods of evaluating instructional effectiveness; (2) analyses of important interpretations, leading historians, historiographical problems, and recent trends in specific fields of historical research; and (3) critical review essays on audiovisual materials, textbooks, and other secondary works suitable for classroom use.

The History Teacher also publishes, as regular departments, reviews of audiovisual materials, books, supplementary readers, and other printed classroom materials, with evaluations of their scholarly reliability, formats, and effectiveness of presentation. Reviews are commissioned in advance. Readers interested in contributing reviews should advise the Editor of their qualifications and fields of specialization.

Manuscripts must be double-spaced, formatted with endnotes in Chicago/Turabian style, and submitted in triplicate or electronically. Manuscripts do not have a specific word limit, but the Editorial Board may recommend that longer manuscripts be separated into shorter pieces if it best serves the scholarship. The History Teacher asks authors to remove or redact their names and other specific identifying information in manuscripts under review. Authors are encouraged to supply or recommend visual learning aids and illustrations that would enhance the effectiveness of their published work.

All manuscripts submitted to The History Teacher are run through anti-plagiarism software. If you are unsure of what constitutes plagiarism, please contact the editors for more information. Manuscripts that have already been published or are under consideration for publication elsewhere cannot be accepted.

Final decisions on manuscripts usually require a minimum of 8-12 weeks. We cannot return articles that have not been accepted unless a self-addressed, stamped envelope is enclosed with the article. The editors, who are the final judges of matters concerning grammar, usage, and other conventions, will edit contributions to conform to the standard manner of presentation in The History Teacher.

Correspondence regarding contributions to The History Teacher and materials for review should be sent to the Editor, The History Teacher; California State University, Long Beach; 1250 Bellflower Boulevard; Long Beach, CA 90840-1601. Additional information for contributing authors is available at <<https://www.thehistoryteacher.org/contributing>>.

The Society for History Education affirms that it does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, national origin, age, or sex. Inquiries concerning the application of Title IX and other federal and state statutes may be referred to the Affirmative Action Officer; California State University, Long Beach; 1250 Bellflower Boulevard; Long Beach, CA 90840.
