HISTORY"

-Alexis Coe

Your Most Obedient & Humble Servant is a podcast that showcases 18th and early 19th-century women's letters that don't always make it into the history books. Join historian Kathryn Gehred and her guests as they explore the lives of women through their letters.

CELEBRATE 250 YEARS of AMERICAN HISTORY

Experience U.S. History at 250

This multi-year project commemorates the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. Through special TAH issues, open-access webinars, roundtable discussions, and town halls, we'll bring historians together in meaningful conversations about our shared past. Mark your calendars to join us in Philadelphia for the 2026 OAH Conference on American History!

NATIONAL HISTORY DAY'S 2026 CONTEST THEME IS REVOLUTION, REACTION, REFORM IN HISTORY

LEARN MORE ABOUT THE THEME

Visit nhd.org/theme to watch the 2026 theme video and download the theme book to help your students consider how revolutions and reforms inspired reactions in history.

ENCOURAGE TOPICS AND CATEGORIES OF INTEREST

Students can study local, national, or even international histories of revolutions, reactions, and reforms. Will they present their research as an exhibit, website, documentary, paper, or performance?

AID IN THE RESEARCH PROCESS

Provide students with online resources and consider field trips to local libraries and archives to examine primary sources. Ensure students place their topic into historical context and formulate a strong historical argument.
